Naples, December 6.

SOME Days ago the Marquis Molini, Maſter of the Chamber to Cardinal Paolucci the Pope's Miniſter and Secretary of State, who had been here ſome Weeks, returning for Rome was ſtopp'd by a Detachment of Soldiers at Averſa and brought back hither, on a Suſpition that he had Letters about him containing ſome Particulars of a Deſign form'd againſt the preſent Government: But no ſuch thing being found in his Papers, he will be permitted to purſue his Journey. The Tartans which 'twas advis'd in our former ſail'd from hence with 1000 Imperialiſts on board commanded by Baron Wetzel, were put into Baia by contrary Winds; But the Wind being now fair for them, 'tis preſum'd they have proceeded on their intended Expedition to make themſelves Maſters of ſome Places in Tuſcany belonging to the Spaniſh Crown.

From the Leiden Gazette, Dated Decem. 30.

Letters from Bologna of the 13th of December tell us, that Intelligence being brought thither that an Imperial Collonel was advancing with 500 Foot and 80 Horſe to paſs through that City in his Way to Naples, the Marquis Antonio Albergotti Major-General in the Pope's Service, was deputed to go and confer with him and ſee his Orders. The Lieutenant-Collonel having ſhewn him that his Orders were to paſs through the Eccleſiaſtical State, and oblige the Inhabitants to furniſh him with Proviſions neceſſary for ſubſiſting his Troops, the Marquis anſwer'd him that 'twas directly contrary to the Agreement made between the Courts of Rome and Vienna, by which it is expreſly ſtipulated that there ſhould paſs through the City of Bologna at the Diſtance of from three Days to three Days, but 200 Imperialiſts at a Time, and that they ſhould pay for the Victuals that ſhould be furniſh'd them: But the Lieutenant-Collonel reply'd, that that Agreement was expir'd, and that he was oblig'd to execute his Orders. The Cardinal Legate diſpatch'd an Expreſs to the Court of Rome, to give an Account of what had paſs'd, and deſire Inſtructions. The Courier return'd the 11th with an Order from the Pope to furniſh no Proviſions to the Imperialiſts without they would pay, and to fall upon them with the Militia in Caſe they ſhould offer to commit any Hoſtilities in their Paſſage. It was reported however that the Marquis Albergotti had ſecretly given 200 Piſtoles to the Lieutenant-Collonel, to avoid bringing things to that Extremity.

From Baſil of the 22d of December 'tis advis'd, that the Sunday before the Deputies from the Diet of the Proteſtant Cantons aſſembled at Langenthal went to Soluthurn, and demanded of the Marquiſs de Puiſieux Ambaſſador of France a Neutrality and Renewal of Commerce between France and the Principality of Neufchatel. The Ambaſſador anſwer'd that he would uſe his beſt Endeavours to perſwade the King his Maſter to grant their Requeſt: So that 'tis hop'd the Affair of Neufchatel will produce no further Troubles.

Letters from Genoa of the 4th of this Month adviſe, that the Tranſports were all ready to take on Board the Succours for Catalonia; but that the Embarcation was put off for ſome Days, till Rear-Admiral Dilkes ſhould arrive from Leghorne with 15 Britiſh and Dutch Men of War: In the mean time the Auxiliary Troops were Quarter'd on the Imperial Fiefs in the Territory of Genoa.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Decemb. 30.

Venice, Dec. 16. Letters from Leghorne of the 9th Inſtant, ſay 23 Britiſh and Dutch Ships of War were ready that Day to ſail for Genoa.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Dec. 30.

Bzrezice in Cujavia, Dec. 9. The Turkiſh Ambaſſador had Audience of the King of Sweden the 7th Inſtant in the Apartment of Count Piper: He deliver'd his Credential Letters, and made a Speech in the Turkiſh Language, in which he repreſented 'that the Report of his Majeſty's great Victories 'and heroick Exploits having reach'd the Ears of 'the Grand Signior his Maſter, he had thought fit 'to ſend this Embaſſy, to compliment him and to 'notify to him that his Highneſs being inform'd his 'Majeſty had 3 Years ago ſet at Liberty ſome 'Turks that were Priſoners in Lemberg did immediately cauſe above 300 Swedes that were Slaves in 'Turkey to be ranſom'd and ſet at Liberty. The Speech was interpreted by M. Klingenſtern, Gentleman of the Bed-Chamber to the King of Sweden. M. Hermelin Councellor of the Chancery and Secretary of State return'd an Anſwer in Latin on the Part of his Majeſty; and the Ambaſſador's Interpreter, who is a Renegado and a Native of Poland explain'd that Anſwer to him, which was to this Effect, 'That his Majeſty was well pleas'd with his coming: 'That he was diſpos'd to entertain a good Correſ-'pondence with the Ottoman Porte; and that he 'would appoint Commiſſioners to receive and exa-'mine what other Propoſitions he had to offer. His Majeſty has appointed him Lodgings in this Town, defrays all Expenſes of the Ambaſſador and his Retinue, and the Proviſions for his Table are dreſs'd by his Majeſty's Cooks. General Rhenne is retir'd from Pultousk with the Muſcovite Troops under his Command, and has taken his Way towards Lithuania: And the Swediſh Walachians have ſince made Excurſions over the Viſtula, and ſcour'd the Country ſeveral Days without meeting any of the Enemy. P. S. An Expreſs from the Officer who commands the Swediſh Walachians has brought Advice, that near Pultousk he met 200 Muſcovites that were ſent out for Intelligence; that he defeated them, and has taken 16 Priſoners.

Leipſich, Dec. 21. The laſt Advices from Poland are, that the Turkiſh Ambaſſador had ſignify'd, that the grand Signior had determin'd to declare War againſt the Muſcovites, in Conjunction with the Tartars who were to furniſh a numerous Army: That his Swediſh Majeſty and King Staniſlaus continu'd in the Palatinate of Cujavia, but that Part of their Army had paſs'd the Viſtula: That the Muſcovites retreated as the Swedes advanc'd, and ruin'd all the Country behind them to deprive the Swedes of Subſiſtance: And that the Czar was at Minskz in Lithuania.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated December 30.

Kaliſh, Dec. 17. The 15th the Swediſh Army paſs'd the Viſtula over 3 Bridges, and the King with his Guards was to follow them to Day. The Muſcovites are retiring towards their own Country. 'Tis talk'd the King of Sweden will ſend 15000 Men towards Wilna to join General Leuwenhaupt, and that with the reſt of his Army he will advance to Minskz and Mohilow, to attack the Lines which the Muſcovites have made between thoſe Places; and that he will proceed from thence towards Smolenſko.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Dec. 29.

Dantzick, Decemb 18. The Inhabitants of the open Country hereabouts are like to suffer much; for the Swedes do not only fetch in Subsistance 15 or 20 Miles round, but have demanded Contributions for 8 Months. 'Tis hop'd the Swedish Army will speedily march towards Lithuania, that this Country may be disburthen'd; and we have a Report that they have actually begun their March that Way.

The most excellent Tablets of a delightful Flavour and Taste, one of which at a time being only chewed or held in the Mouth, rowling it about with the Tongue, wonderfully (without the least offence or hindrance of business) purges the Head and Brain, curing all the Diseases thereof, by evacuating the Rheum or Humours by moderate Spitting, that cause them, when all inward Medicines, Blisters, Issues, Seatons, &c. are ineffectual. In Rheumatisms, Gouts, Kings-Evil, Leprosies, Red and Pimply Faces, Itchings, Scabs, &c. they are strangely effectual, sweetning the Blood, creating an Appetite, &c. One of them used as abovesaid for an hour or two, will discharge near a Pint of Rheum, which continued may save the trouble and serve for the same end and better than Salivation in many cases (they being without the least grain of Mercury) and by spitting out at any time the Tablet (which never sticks to the Mouth or Teeth) the Flux immediately ceases, being very harmless and as small (only flattish) as Peas, leaving the Mouth moist, cool and refresh'd. Are to be had only at Mr. Varenne's, a Bookseller, at Seneca's Head near Somerset-House in the Strand, at 3 s. 6 d. the Box, with Directions.

The Incomparable India Dentifick Roots, only to be had at Thomas Allcraft's a Toy-shop at the Sign of the Bluecoat-Boy over-against the Royal Exchange, and at Young Man's Coffee-House near Chairing-Cross, price 6 d each Root. This Root dipped in fair Water, and bruis'd with a Hammer, becomes a soft and pleasant Brush to the Teeth and Gums, afterwards pairing away by degrees the outward Rind, wears so to the last. Its Vertues are beyond any Human Art for cleaning the Teeth, as to bring them to the Whiteness of Ivory in a few times using; it preserves your Teeth from corruption and prevents farther decay in any before corrupted, whoever uses it 2 or 3 times a day will ever avoid Tooth-ach, having foul Teeth, or a strong Breath, nor is this Root in its use any wise offensive to smell or taste.
